To Whom It May Concern:

In June of 2008, Linn County contracted with Jarvis Construction for flood recovery on over 80% of county buildings damaged by severe flooding in Cedar Rapids. This included our county administration building, the courthouse and the jail.

Jarvis Construction was quickly on the scene doing a variety of clean-up and stabilization work that allowed the county to secure its facilities and promote clean-up, as well as preserve buildings for future occupancy.

Jarvis Construction has worked in a number of other areas in disaster recovery and is working hard to become community partners in post-disaster Cedar Rapids.

Please give Jarvis Construction consideration in response to your flood recovery needs.

Sincerely,

Linda Langston
Linn County Board of Supervisors, Vice Chair
